

UNIVERSITY OF EDUCATION, WINNEBA
FACULTY OF SCIENCE
DEPARTMENT OF HOME ECONOMICS EDUCATION

COURSE TITLE : PROCESSES IN CLOTHING CONSTRUCTION
COURSE CODE : HEC 242
CREDIT : 3
LECTURER : MS. PHYLLIS FORSTER

COURSE OUTLINE

OBJECTIVE : Students should be able to produce folders on the basic garment construction processes.

WEEK	CONTENT	ASSIGNMENT/PROJECT	REMARKS
2-3	Equipment
4	Notions and Threads
5	Basic Stitches
6	Seams	Samplers on Basic stitches to be submitted in the 6 th week.
7	Pockets	Samplers on seams to be submitted in the 7 th week
8	Revision of treated Processes	Pocket samplers to be submitted in the 8 th week
9-10	Arrangement of fullness	Arrangement of fullness samplers to be submitted in the 12 th
11-12	Edge finishes	Edge finishes samplers to be submitted in the 13 th week.
13	Opening and Fastenings	Opening and fastenings samplers to be submitted in the 14 th week.
14-15	Project	Project to be handed in by the 16 th week.

REFERENCES

1. Basic Needlework by W. Bull
2. Needlework for schools by M. Neal
3. Dressmaking simplified
4. Clothing & Textiles for SSS by GES
5. The complete book of sewing by D. Kindersley